

David Olson - Communications Director

Olson has over 30 years of experience in public facility management. He began his career teaching in the theater departments of Iowa State University and Hiram College in Hiram, Ohio. As a public assembly facility professional, he worked as Events Coordinator at the Iowa State Center in Ames, Iowa, moving up to become Assistant Director for Programming. Prior to joining Compass, Olson was Assistant General Manager of the Civic Center of Greater Des Moines, Iowa, where he was active in the presentation of the building's Broadway series, as well as managing the facility's rental business.

Olson supervises all forms of corporate communication for VenuWorks.
