

Tim Sullivan – Chief Financial Officer

Tim Sullivan joins VenuWorks with extensive accounting and finance experience in the healthcare industry. He has a Bachelor's degree in Finance from Iowa State University and an MBA from Drake University. He is also a Certified Internal Auditor (CIA). Prior to joining VenuWorks, he conducted full-scope financial, operational, and compliance audits at a large regional medical center in Des Moines, Iowa, working with Senior Management and the Board of Directors to assess internal controls and evaluate changing risks and compliance concerns. As Chief Financial Officer, Tim is responsible for the budgeting and financial reporting at all VenuWorks locations and is excited to bring his skills to the facility management industry. Tim and his wife Nicki have a daughter, Shaylin.
